PCM-CA hires new human resources director

Angelica Madrigal is a 15-year veteran in human resources

BY CHERYL WALKER

Professional Community Management of California, Inc., which is headquartered in Lake Forest just announced the appointment of Angelica Madrigal as director of human resources.

Madrigal will work with executives in the company to update processes and train PCM employees on sexual harassment policies and other litigation issues.

Madrigal's previous experience includes serving as the director of human resources for Children's Hospital of Orange County and the director of Towne All Points in Costa Mesa.
