

October 27, 2009

Disbro named to BIA OC Board

Professional Community Management of California Inc. (PCM), one of the nation's largest property management firms, announced today that Chief Executive Donny Disbro has been named as a board member for the Orange County chapter of the Building Industry Assn. of Southern California.

With 12 years of industry experience, Disbro brings extensive knowledge of transitioning developer/builder board-governed communities to homeowner-governed communities. Disbro also will provide understanding of the overall discipline of post-construction property management.

As a board member, Disbro will be responsible for strategic planning for membership and budget goals along with participating in board self-evaluation programs. In addition, Disbro will attend board seminars and workshops and partner with other board members in fund raising efforts.