Professional Community Management, Inc. manager elected to South Orange County Regional Chamber of Commerce Board

LAKE FOREST, Calif. (Feb. 3, 2009) – Wendy Bucknum, Government and Public Affairs Manager for Professional Community Management, Inc., was voted onto the Board of Directors for the South Orange County Regional Chamber of Commerce January 21, 2009. Bucknum also serves as the chair of the Legislative Action Committee and vice-chair elect of the Governmental Affairs Committee. PCM, Inc. is an agent for Laguna Woods Village and part of the Professional Community Management of California, Inc. family of companies.

Bucknum recently joined the skilled group of community association managers who have earned the Association Management Specialist (AMS) designation from Community Association Institute (CAI). To earn the AMS designation, managers must have at least two years in community association management and complete advanced course work. Bucknum is a Certified Manager of Community Associations (CMCA), and has more than 15 years of community management experience.

Professional Community Management of California, Inc. specializes in the management of Common Interest Developments (CIDs) of homeowners associations for high-rise condominiums, family oriented master-planned developments, subdivisions of master-planned developments, active-adult master-planned communities and boutique communities throughout Southern California. It manages a portfolio of nearly 100,000 units in 250 community associations, representing a combined real estate value in excess of $45 billion.

With headquarters in Lake Forest, Calif., PCM and its family of companies employ a staff of more than 1,400 people. PCM has regional offices in Orange, Riverside, San Diego and Los Angeles counties and has been recognized by the Multi Housing Council as one of the county's largest managers of common interest developments, commonly referred to as Homeowner Associations.

Management services by PCM are backed by state-of-the art Internet software technology, and comprehensive financial and management systems. For additional information, please contact PCM at 800.369.7260 or at www.pcminternet.com.
