PCM Participates in 32nd Annual Dana Point Turkey Trot Proceeds Benefit Second Harvest Food Bank of Orange County

LAKE FOREST, Calif. (Dec. 7, 2009)—Several employees from Professional Community Management participated on the race team in the 32nd Annual Dana Point Turkey Trot on Thanksgiving Day. Approximately 20 PCM employees and their families, including CEO Donny Disbro, joined more than 12,000 people who ran or walked in the event's 10K and two 5K races.

"PCM is proud to take part in a good cause supporting health and fitness. We hope to strengthen our presence at the Turkey Trot, increase what we give back to the community and continue to help fight hunger during the holiday season," said Disbro.

Proceeds from the Dana Point Turkey Trot benefited the Second Harvest Food Bank of Orange County.

PCM supports many other charitable organizations in Southern California including: United Way; Saddleback Memorial Hospital; City of Hope; Orangewood Foundation; The Salvation Army; Saddleback Valley Outreach; Toys for Tots; Laguna Woods Philharmonic; various Orange County high schools; South County Regional Chamber of Commerce; South County Senior Services; Laura's House Home Aid's Project Playhouse; Orange County YMCA; Saddleback Kiwani; Boy Scouts of America, Orange County; Southern California high school education and athletic Programs; Back Bay Therapeutic Riding Club, Inc.; Florence Sylvester Memorial Senior Center; and the Orange County Vikings.
