Professional Community Management of California, Inc. (PCM) supports charities throughout Southern California

PCM partners to raise 180,000 items for annual Homeaid's Essentials for Young Life drive

LAKE FOREST, Calif. (May 11, 2010) – Professional Community Management of California, Inc., one of the nation's largest managers of homeowner associations, announced today that it helped gather 180,000 items for the Homeaid's Essentials for Young Life month long charity drive. The benefit supported Homeaid Orange County service partners providing supplies to homeless families and children. PCM was selected as a public drop for the drive and as a partner to assist HomeAid Orange County.

"Since our company was launched 35 years ago, its founders have placed a high value on contributing both time and financial support to charitable efforts in the communities where we work," said Donny Disbro, chief executive officer for PCM. "Supporting organizations serving our local communities is a central value in our corporate culture and sets us apart in our industry; evidenced by the enthusiasm our employees have show for this annual Homeaid's Essentials for Young Life drive." Disbro serves on the board of directors for the BIA of Orange County, a partner to HomeAid Orange County.

PCM dedicated a month to the drive, working with staff to gather financial support and essentials from March 26 to April 26. The following items were targeted for collection: baby wipes, baby food, diapers, and baby products such as wash, lotion and shampoo.

PCM supports many other charitable organizations in Southern California every year, including: United Way, Saddleback Memorial Hospital; Boy Scouts of America, Orange County; Orangewood Children's Hospital; Salvation Army; Saddleback Valley Church; Toys for Tots; HomeAid's Project Playhouse; City of Hope; Laura's House and Orange County's YMCA.
