Professional Community Management of California, Inc adds 2,719 Homes to Property Management Portfolio

Company portfolio includes prestigious Trump luxury residence community

LAKE FOREST, Calif. (September 17, 2010) – In the words of Donald Trump, Professional Community Management of California, Inc. (PCM) is hired. One of the nation's largest managers of homeowner associations, PCM earned 10 new clients throughout Southern California, including luxury residence communities such as The Estates at Trump National and The Retreat in Corona, CA. The signing of these new clients expands the PCM property management portfolio to include an additional 2,719 units.

PCM's new clients include:

- The Retreat, a 496-single-family home community in Corona;
- The Estates at Trump National, a 42-single-family home community in Palos Verdes;
- Seabreeze, a 180-unit condominium community in Oceanside;
- Creekwood, a 252-unit condominium community in Mission Valley;
- Santa Rosa, 112-unit condominium community in Irvine;
- Monterey, 1,300-unit MPC in Irvine;
- Apple Valley Ride, a 90 single-family home community in Apple Valley;
- Lynwood Greens, 184-unit condominium community in San Bernardino;
- Oak Park, 30-unit condominium community in Pasadena;
- Rose Crest, 33-unit condominium community in Irvine.

“We credit our continued client growth and expansion across Southern California to the hard work and service ethic of our staff,” said Donny Disbro, CEO of PCM. “As a company, we support our PCM family that includes each and every resident who lives and works in the communities we manage with the latest technological tools and highest quality vendors. When they sign with us, they know they will work with the best.”

Chief Marketing Officer Rene Decker added, “Our community managers and department leaders not only embrace the best practices in our industry, but they innovate and take customer service to a new level.”
