Professional Community Management of California, Inc. Celebrates PCAM Designated Community Manager

Scott Mourer earns top management recognition with ten years of service excellence

LAKE FOREST, Calif. (December 10, 2010) – Scott Mourer, community manager of La Mirada Landmark Adult Community Association, earned the Community Associations Institute (CAI) designation of Professional Community Association Manager (PCAM). The PCAM designation is the highest professional recognition available nationwide to managers who specialize in community association management.

“This designation puts Scott among the top community managers in the industry and we commend his achievement,” said Donny Disbro, CEO of PCM. “The hard work and spirit of dedication among our staff is what makes PCM the company it is today.”

The Professional Community Association Manager designation is recommended for experienced managers who have demonstrated advanced skills and knowledge. Prospective PCAM designees must have a minimum five years experience, achieved the Certified Manager of Community Management and the Association Management Specialist designation and completed additional course work and a case study.
