Professional Community Management of California, Inc Honored by Shadowridge Owners' Association

Residents praise volunteers and service organizations at annual event

VISTA, CA (November 8, 2011) – Professional Community Management of California, Inc., received a Vendor Appreciation Award at the Shadowridge Owners' Association Annual Appreciation Dinner. Pac West and North Coast Patrol were also honored vendors and Stephanie Jackel, president of the South Vista Communities, received Citizen of the Year.

“Shadowridge has been a valued member of the PCM family for more than 30 years,” said Donny Disbro, Chief Executive Officer of PCM. “We are honored by their recognition and look forward to many more years of providing superior service.”

Located in Vista, CA, Shadowridge is a master-planned development of 2,100 single family homes, 400 condominiums, and 1,500 apartments, which make up 27 sub-associations and neighborhoods. PCM provides management, financial and customer services for the Shadowridge Owners' Association. The community manager team works directly with the association board and assists in the daily functions of the association's business.

In attendance were Mayor Judy Ritter of Vista, Gene Ford, president of the Shadowridge Owners' Association, Janet Price, chief financial officer of PCM, Tim Taylor, senior vice president of Large Scale Management at PCM and Jim Fraker, vice president of the PCM's San Diego Management Division.
