Professional Community Management of California, Inc
To Manage New Village of Stonegate
Company continues relationship with the Irvine Company

LAKE FOREST, Calif. (June 17, 2011) –Professional Community Management of California, Inc. (PCM) announced an agreement with the Irvine Company to manage the new Village of Stonegate. One of the nation’s largest managers of homeowner associations, PCM also manages the Irvine Company properties Woodbury East, Woodbury, Santa Rosa, Monterey, Santa Barbara, Summit at Turtle Ridge and Northwood II. Presently there are 2,241 units for sale in the Village of Stonegate as well as 991 apartments. The 12 new model homes are now open for viewing.

“We are very excited to expand our relationship with the Irvine Company,” said Donny Disbro, chief executive officer of PCM. “Our long partnership is a testament to our award-winning staff who is personally and professionally dedicated to the homeowners and residents living in all of the communities we manage.”

As the property management company, PCM serves as an agent to the Association’s Board of Directors providing budget guidance, communicating with the Board of Directors and residents, coordinating projects of interest to the communities, and managing vendors for landscaping and other services.

“All of PCM’s managers are certified by the California Association of Community Managers and key members of our team are leaders in the industry in establishing and building upon the standards that govern the management of common interest developments,” said Dana Davidson, senior vice president of PCM’s Orange County division. “The Irvine Company has recognized that PCM’s dedication to training and development as well as empowering staff with innovative tools such as mobile devices that increase our response time to resident requests.”

The Irvine Pacific Collection at the Village of Stonegate includes four neighborhoods: Santa Clara, San Mateo, San Marcos and Maricopa. Stonegate homeowners will enjoy four new parks scheduled to open this summer, including Stonegate Park, which offers fields for softball/youth baseball, soccer, full basketball courts, tennis courts, sand volleyball, a tot lot, shade structures, barbecues and picnic tables. Hummingbird and Mockingbird Parks will have swimming pools and other recreational amenities, and Meadowlark Park will become the perfect setting for picnics and barbeques.
