Professional Community Management raised over $2,400 at an Irvine benefit in Support of Associa PAC and Associa Cares

September 30, 2011 — Professional Community Management hosted a Napa-style wine tasting fundraising event on September 29, 2011 to benefit Associa PAC and Associa Cares.

Over 75 managers and businesses that work in the community associations industry gathered at the Woodbury Recreation Center in Irvine to sample a variety of wines and enjoy appetizers provided by Italian restaurant and bakery Il Fornaio.

Guest of honor State Senator Mimi Walters shared with the crowd her experience as a homeowner association board member, and her perspectives on the community associations industry.

“We were honored to have Senator Mimi Walters at the Associa PAC fundraiser,” said Donny Disbro, CEO of PCM. “She is an invaluable Sacramento ally of the community association industry in the 33rd District and the State of California.”

Proceeds went towards the Associa Political Action Committee (Associa PAC) supports issues and candidates that benefit the community association industry.

“PCM employees have celebrated a successful 2011 Legislative session and a strengthened relationship with Realtors due in no small part to the efforts of AssociaPAC,” said Disbro.
