Laguna Woods Village Social Services Department wins SAGE “Program of the Year” Honors

LAKE FOREST, Calif. (September 19, 2011) –The 55+ Housing Council of Southern California announced today that the Social Services Department at Laguna Woods Village, managed by Professional Community Management, Inc. (PCM), has been selected as the SAGE 2011 Program of the Year.

The SAGE Program of the Year recognizes a Southern California program, partnership or service that has enhanced the quality of life for seniors and can be adopted as a model for other senior communities or venues.

“PCM is honored to receive the SAGE Award in recognition of the Social Services Department at Laguna Woods Village,” said PCM CEO Donny Disbro. “We are proud of our excellent team of social workers and volunteers dedicated to ensuring the safety and well being of the residents of the Village.”

With nearly 40 years of experience in age-qualified community management, PCM has built a strong reputation as one of the largest and finest management companies in the nation.

The Social Services department, a cornerstone of the Laguna Woods Village community since 1972, is designed to serve as the safety net for the residents of Laguna Woods Village; a place where residents in crisis can receive accurate information, sound options, and referrals to community resources.

PCM joins a prestigious group of SAGE Program of the Year recipients. Past recipients include industry leaders such as the Orange County Council on Aging, South County Senior Services (SCSS), FallProof Balance and Mobility Program of the Center for Successful Aging at California State University Fullerton, and the UCI Medical Center H.A.P.S. (Health Assessment Program for Seniors).

The SAGE Awards banquet will be held on the evening of November 3, 2011 at the Turnip Rose, at 1901 Newport Boulevard in Costa Mesa.
