IN-HOUSE MANAGEMENT TRAINING CLASS LAUNCHES NEW CAREERS FOR EMPLOYEES

LAKE FOREST, Calif. (January 4, 2012) – Professional Community Management of California, Inc. announced that Susan Schrock successfully completed the requirements to become a Licensed Provisional Community Manager and will receive her license from the State of Nevada's Real Estate Division.

In August 2011, PCM opened its Nevada office to manage eight Pulte Group Del Webb communities. CEO Donny Disbro personally welcomed employees and informed them that PCM would sponsor them to take the required class and tests to earn their Provisional Community Management licenses.

"The strongest pillar of PCM's success lies within our employees. We are totally committed to developing their skills and talents," said Disbro. "We want to give all our employees the opportunity to move up in our company and enjoy productive, long-term careers."

Schrock was working as an administrative assistant for Pulte Group's Del Webb Community Management division when she learned about the opportunity.

"When Donny met with us and told us about PCM, I was very motivated to become part of the PCM family," she said. For the next two years, Schrock will be working in the field at a PCM-managed community under the guidance of a Licensed Supervisory Community Manager before receiving her full license.
